Student Council Elects D. Butler Head For Year

Plans For City-Wide Ticket Selling Organization To Help Athletics.

The student council of the U. of O. met for the first time Friday, Sept. 21st. Donald Butler was elected president of the council. Ruth Shellington is vice-president and Leah Daubenheyer, secretary.

At the same time, plans were laid for the city-wide ticket selling organization, the aim of which is, to put our University in front of the Public eye, and to help out the athletic fund by large turn-outs at all games.

Second Meeting Held

A second meeting of the year was held Tuesday, Sept. 25th, in the office of Dean James, at which time further plans were laid for the city-wide ticket selling organizations.

The council selected thirty students from the school to act as group leaders. Each of the thirty group leaders is to choose ten members to work with him.

With this plan, it is thought that U. of O. Athletics will be put in front of all Omahans, and attendance at games will be greatly increased.

Student Members

The council, which is putting over this drive, is composed of ten students. Five are elected, and five are appointed. Those elected are: Donald Butler, representative, senior class; Leah Daubenheyer, representative, junior class; Ruth Shellington, representative, sophomore class; Grace Wells, representative, freshman class; and Florence Price, representative, college of commerce. Those appointed to the faculty are: Dorothy M. Senior class, Arthur Dunn, junior class; Richard Dunham, sophomore class; and Don McMahon, freshman class. One more member, from the college of commerce is yet to be appointed.

Prof. Noel Logan Heads Music School

Courses Planned To Meet State Requirements; Lead To Certificates, Degrees.

The new School of Music at the University of Omaha is under full control of Professor Noel Logan. Arrangements have been made so that the music courses of the local school will harmonize with state requirements.

A splendid faculty is offering both two and four year courses in public school music, and instruction in all musical instruments. The courses are thoroughly organized leading to certificates and degrees.

Much enthusiasm has been exhibited for band and orchestra work. And a vested choir and a choral society of mixed voices are only a few of Professor Logan's hopes for the year. There is a large enrollment in the different music courses.

"There is now the opportunity that there has not been in the past for forging ahead in music here," stated Professor Logan. Any Liberal Arts student may take up to six hours applied music as well as six hours theoretic.

Professor Logan expects this year to be the crowning year in music in the history of the U. of O. The changes make the work easier, and give students better range and more choice of subjects.

Don Douglas will attend the University of Chicago this year, and John Reader will enroll in the night art classes at the Art Institute.

The Misses Alice Pitts, Dorothy Nelson, and Margaret Gehrhardt have entered Peru Normal School.

Hear Ye! Hear Ye!

The University of Omaha is offering a prize of $25 for a new name for the University weekly paper, formerly known as "The Gateway." All University students taking twelve hours in any college may compete, excepting the Gateway staff. Members of the faculty may also enter names. J. E. Davidson and two other business men, who in no way have any connection with the University, are to be the judges.

Everyone attending the University should make it a point to compete in this contest, for it is a paper of the University and not of a few. Everyone is free at all times to enter any publication name which they may think of interest. We want to have a good paper this year and by the co-operation of the whole student body and faculty we hope to put out one of the best papers ever published by the University of Omaha.

This contest closes Friday night, September 28. Everyone (that means you) hand in a name.

Commerce School Enrollment Large; One New Teacher

"The U. of O. is making a decided move forward," said Dean A. J. Dunlap of the College of Commerce and Finance, in a recent interview. The enrollment at the Commercial College is almost double that of last year at this time.

Mr. Dunlap added enthusiastically, "Our university is entering a new era of prosperity and expansion!" It is his firm belief that the faculty and student body will both continue to grow steadily from now on.

Miss Rose Hrouda is the only new member of the faculty of the College of Commerce this year. Miss Hrouda comes to the U. of O. from Chicago, and she has had six years' teaching experience. She is a graduate of the University of Nebraska and a native of Dodge. She will instruct in Business English and Stenography at the local college.

Everyone for U. of O.

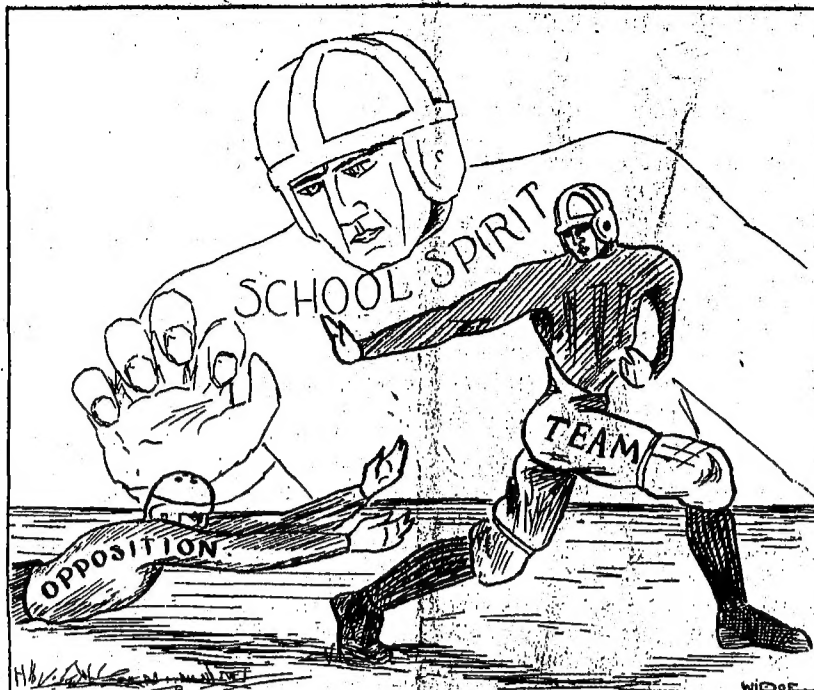

CAFETERIA INSTALLED; MISS MCCARTNEY HEAD

The University of Omaha Cafeteria served its first meal Tuesday, September 18. The new cafeteria is located in the basement of Joslyn Hall, and will accommodate all the students and faculty between 11:30 and 1 o'clock every day.

At the suggestion of President Emery and with the strong co-operation of the Household Arts Department the new venture was completed in less than a week's time. Steam tables, gas stoves, and an electric refrigeration system have been installed, and arm chairs are placed about the room with chairs and tables in the center of the cafeteria.

Miss Alice McCartney, head of the Household Arts Department, who comes to the university this year from Columbia, is the supervisor, with Gwen Harger assistant. Miss Alice Wells of Omaha has been hired for the new cook, and student employment will be used.

The Social Committee of the faculty is backing the cafeteria, and states that it has been instituted for the purpose of accommodating students and faculty members. The committee is composed of the following: Mrs. Leslie Johnson, chairman; Miss Frances Wood, Mrs. Fritz Baumgartner, Miss Marjorie May, Miss Alice McCartney.

Omaha Welcomes Faculty Members To Uni Campus

Last year's students will see, besides the usual number of Freshmen, many new faces presiding in the class rooms.

Foremost among the newcomers is Dr. E. W. Emery, the new President who comes to the U. of O. from York College.

It is interesting to note that we have a new Dean of Women this year. Mrs. Stevens is known in Omaha where she formerly held the position of Principal of two of Omaha's Grade Schools. More recently she has been connected with the Organic Education School at Fairhope, Alabama. Her position before coming to Omaha was in City School for Girls, Greenwich, Connecticut.

New heads are boasted by the School of Music and the Department of Education. Professor Noel J. Logan comes from Dubuque, Ia., and promises a most remarkable, outstanding year in music.

Professor Irwin A. Hammer, who was formerly a member of the faculty of the University of Minnesota, is to have charge of the Department of Education. There is also a new assistant in the education work—Miss Clara Smith from Beemer.

A former student, Professor Cecil Simmons, is also a member of the U. of O. faculty this year.

Miss Frances Platt, instructor in French, had taught at Brownell Hall before coming here. After graduating from the University of Denver, she taught there for some time.

Miss Hilma Peterson of the Mathematics Department has handed her resignation to the Administration. It has been accepted, but Miss Peterson will continue her work here.

Each year a newer and better system has been used for the selection of a faculty particularly suited for the work here. Dr. Emery states that no one who does not hold both Masters' and Doctors' degrees will be considered in connection with a position at the University in the future.

Everyone for U. of O.

FOR ALL GIRLS

Say, girls, have you been downstairs to our new "Y" room? It is next door to the Cafeteria. You can't miss it—green door and comfy chairs—wonderful atmosphere—nice and cozy. When you want to relax and forget your troubles, come with your friends to the "Y" room waiting to accommodate you and (shall I say it) you may study, you may argue, you may study (just try it), or you may relax. Oh, yes, make new friends there, too.

L. B. Greenhaw is the new Director of the College of Liberal Arts, handling all financial matters. He was formerly auditor and accountant for the College of Commerce and Finance and Liberal Arts.

Enthusiastic First Assembly; President Emery Is Introduced

J. E. Davidson, Coach Hubka, A. D. Dunlap Address Student Body.

The first assembly of the year was held Wednesday, September 19th, in Jacob's Hall with Dean W. G. James presiding.

After a prayer offered by Dr. Allen of the First Methodist Church and a duet sung by Mrs. Louise Jansen Wylie and Professor Noel J. Logan, the speaker of the morning, Mr. J. E. Davidson, General Manager of the Nebraska Power Company and Vice-president of the Board of Trustees of the University, was introduced.

Mr. Davidson spoke of the fine outlook for the University with such a remarkable president and faculty.

Dr. Emery, our new president, was then introduced. The keynote of his speech was his statement "There is fighting all down the line; fall in anywhere!" He extended an invitation to the students to visit him in his office.

Following the speeches, Dean James introduced the faculty with Ernest Hubka, the new coach, outlining his plans for the year.

The first assembly closed with the U. of O. song.

Y. M. C. A. Sponsors Den for Students

Gateway Office Moved; Room To House Students—Rest and Lounge Room

Through the kindly assistance of Dr. Emery, President of the University, and through the courtesy of the Gateway staff, the old Gateway office is being transformed into a delightful haven for men students. This room when completed is to be officially known as the Y Den, but unofficially as the lounge room, sleeping parlor, or possibly as a study room.

The vast possibilities of such a room are probably not realized by the majority of students. Whenever a student has a vacant hour during the day, he can do nothing better than to spend that time in the Y Den. During lunch hour before going back to the afternoon grind, relax in the Y Den.

Entirely For Students

The Y. M. C. A. is planning this room entirely for the use of the students. It feels that in establishing this room it can better carry on the extensive work of the Y. It feels that this den will better enable the Y workers to meet the new students on the campus, and to give to them a better opportunity to establish themselves in new surroundings.

Help Needed

Although the den is at present only meagerly furnished, the Y hopes to complete it as soon as possible. All students who are interested in helping to work on the den please see Richard Dunham, Chairman of the Room Committee, immediately. There is much work yet to be done, and all assistance will be greatly appreciated.

The Den, besides acting as a refuge for students, is used to hold all Y. M. C. A. meetings every Tuesday morning at 10:00 A. M. These meetings are devoted exclusively to planning the Y activities, and also for entertainments.

Omaha Uni Now Broadcasts Weekly

Did you know that the University of Omaha has a Broadcasting Hour over WOW every Friday afternoon from 3:35 to 4:05? September 28th Dean W. Gifford and Professor Irwin A. Hammer entertained September 19th Professor Noel Logan and Mrs. Jansen Wylie gave musical numbers, and September 21st Professor Gifford took the twenty minute program.

THE RENAISSANCE AT THE U. OF O.

The University of Omaha is a business institution. It has for its purpose the business of educating young people that they might better live a life of service, prosperity, and happiness.

Business moves in cycles, we are told by commercial authorities. These three phases of business growth are—Promotion, Competition, and Retention.

Promotion is that period of business life when new plans are laid, new ideas are put into practice, and new groups of workers are banded together. The U. of O. first passed through this stage of life about twenty years ago.

Then came that second stage known as Competition, during which time the university was very active. An excellent faculty was selected that did its utmost to lead the student body in the best manner possible; fine courses of study were introduced; competition with other colleges was enjoyed.

Our university then reached the phase of Retention. At this time in the business cycle, the institution has either won great success and is satisfied with the state of things, or it has struck a rut from which it seems it cannot extricate itself. If, when this happens, the business grows regardless, then the business cycle repeats itself.

This always occurs in the successful institution. The University of Omaha is now beginning its second round of the business cycle. It has the background, history, and other elements necessary to complete the first cycle, and is ready to press on to greater heights.

This year marks a Renaissance, in other words, for the U. of O. It is up to the students and faculty, under the leadership of the new President and with the co-operation of the Board of Trustees of the university, to put things across. A new era of prosperity is here. Great things can happen this year! It is up to everyone concerned to work and boost for the University of Omaha.

PLEDGES SUPPORT

The staff of the weekly paper of the U. of O. pledges its loyal support to the university. It is boosting, heart and soul, for a growing institution.

The atmosphere of friendliness and the spirit of fair play that pervades the campus and football field has permeated the office of the paper, and, with the new era of good-will that is here, prospects are great for a highly successful year.

Those who WORK for the improvement of the university are entitled to more respect than those who merely hope for it.

WELCOME, FRESH!

Freshmen, the U. of O. greets you.

"Get right in there, and fight!"

The U. of O. is for you.

"Higash," reported one dorky engaged in argument with another, "if ya' brakin' was dynamite an' dey doubled over' account fu' a hundred years an' dey exploded, dey wouldn't blow ya' hat off on a windy day!"

"With the Faculty"

President E. W. Emery, in addressing the faculty at their first meeting of the year, outlined definite ideas for the instructors to keep their work at such a high standard that the university credits will be stabilized. He stated that students are allowed to take only sixteen hours work a semester with the exception of Pre-Medical and Pre-Dental students, who are allowed seventeen or eighteen hours. This is in agreement with state college laws. All faculty committees were reorganized.

Second Meeting

At the second faculty meeting of the university, Miss Hilma Peterson resigned as Head of the mathematics department. Professor F. K. Guilfoil was elected secretary of the faculty. Student Council members appointed by the faculty were: Senior—Dorothy Manger, Junior—Arthur Dunn, Sophomore—Richard Dunham, and Freshman—Don McMahon.

Mac's Mutterings

WE THOUGHT that we wouldn't be bothered by loud sweaters this year, but now that the first week of school is over, some of the bolder ones are blossoming out in color combinations that are worse crimes than any we have ever seen.

THE SADDEST part of this tale is that the lowly Freshmen are not the only offenders.

SUSPENDERS ARE the one thing we haven't seen, and the only reason for that is the cold weather, which has forced our passionate youths to wear coats or sweaters.

OUR BEAU Brummels of Fashion are back again with a brand new assortment of flashy neck-ties.

YOU KNOW the lad who wears the same neck-tie for more than a week at a time is a social outcast.

SPEAKING OF neck-ties reminds us of the school politician—John Hoover is his name, Phi Sig his fraternity, and neck-ties his specialty.

WE HAVE the men, the coach, the trainer, and the backing; and we see no reason whatsoever for not winning a few games this season.

WHAT WE need more than anything is student backing and without that all is lost.

ANOTHER THING we need is a band, and, it is reported, that our musicians are earnestly striving to organize a presentable group.

A NEW SHIEK, GIRLS!

YES, BUT TOO YOUNG A cute little boy, six and a half weeks old now, is taking all of Mrs. Q. Mathews' time. The coming of baby Don Q, as he is named, was a happy event for everyone, but caused the loss of a good instructor at the U. of O. College of Commerce.

Mrs. Mathews, 306 South 55th St., had to resign her position on the faculty of the local college in order to devote enough time to the young man. Oh those men! "He's good looking," proudly remarked the mother: "looks like his dad!" He already shows signs of great intelligence, according to Mrs. Mathews, and he may be either the book-keeper or sales type. She isn't sure which. At least he'll be a great man. Everyone predicts that—such a combination of Solomon and Frank! Keep it up, Don Q. Good luck to you and your happy parents.

WINS SECOND PLACE

Miss Gladys Mann, Sophomore in the School of Music, won second place in the Alwaye Kent Hour Saturday night over W. O. W. She sang "If Only" and "Smilin' Thru."

President E. W. Emery will speak at the North Presbyterian Church Sunday morning, September 30, at eleven o'clock.

TO TIN-PAN JAZZ!

I sit alone and listen to blaring, savage jazz,
 With emotions as primitive as the rhythmic beating
 Of an ancient native drum,
 Pounding in my ears of passions dormant
 Since some wild life, long ago, by jungle trail
 And sluggish jungle stream.
 I sink down cautiously to drink, by night/
 The woven verdure, cool against my moist, bronze skin.
 I listen to the moaning of the drum,
 Swaying, with my eyes upon the moon,
 Floating, a craft of silver on the sullen
 Waters 'round my feet.
 A surge of violent joy, as the drum cries out again,
 I seize the moon in both my hands to hold it high.
 The waters ripple cool against my searching arms,
 Embracing nothingness, and yet I laugh triumphantly,
 Then silent sinks the fierce voice of the drum,
 And I am motionless with fear.
 A strident bell breaks off the golden thread,
 And shatters my senses sharply, and it hurts,—
 And I drag myself across the room, to answer the—telephone.

"TO THE ASHES OF A CAMPFIRE"

Eve knelt beside a pile of sticks,
 And lit it with a star,
 And fed the flame with fresh, sweet twigs,
 Until it glowed afar.
 And all the sprites who haunt the night,
 Leaped with the joyous flames,
 Till angered by their happy shouts,
 His black cowed mantle pressing close,
 Night came and put it out.

Who's Who at the U. of O.?

DR. ERNEST W. EMERY, PRES.

The new leader at the U. of O. this year is Dr. Ernest W. Emery, a man well fitted and well equipped for such a position. He had his preparatory training at the Washington High School of Washington, Indiana, graduating from there in 1909. He immediately entered the Indiana Central College at Indianapolis, receiving his degree in 1912 with a major in philosophy.

Following his graduation he and Mrs. Emery went to British West Africa where, under the supervision of the United Brethren Church, they were engaged in educational and medical work.

After his return to the states in 1918 Dr. Emery was field representative for the Indiana Central College until 1923 when he continued his own education at Indiana State. He came to the University of Omaha from York College at York, Nebraska, after having served as president of that institution.

President Emery is vitally interested in athletics and has great hopes for an outstanding year on that field of activity. In the matter of a hobby—a pastime—he has chosen geology.

There is all evidence that Dr.

Emery's first year at the U. of O. will be a highly successful one—a year to be regarded as entirely satisfactory due to the efficiency and ability of our new president.

LEAH DAUBENHEYER

Leah Daubenhayer, that attractive and very busy young Miss whom we see rushing about the campus has made a great place for herself at the U. of O.

As student representative on the Athletic Board, as President of the Pi Omega Pi sorority, and as sorority representative on the Pan Hellenic Council there is evidence of Leah's executive ability and also evidence of her popularity.

She has brought much honor to the school. For two consecutive years she won second place in the State Oratorical contest concerning the Constitution. During her Freshman year Miss Daubenhayer won an essay contest sponsored by the Illinois Central Railway Company.

Leah is a member of the Sigma Pi Honorary Forensic fraternity and also the Junior class representative to the Student Council. She is majoring in English and Expression; her greatest hobby being the latter. Here's to Leah—a true U. of O. booster!

"FLAMING FRANK" WRITES RAMONA

Dear Ramona.

Well, here I am in college already and the most popular guy on the campus. I am being rushed by all the fraternities, and I have a terrible time keeping all my dates straight. I guess maybe they know all about me and what a popular guy I was in high school. If I wasn't madly in love with you, I might say, hello to some of the girls when they look at me. I was going out for football, but I decided that I had so many other things to do that the school would have to wait a year or so before I could win some games. I am glad that I have a good personality because it sure helps me out a lot. I bought an elevator ticket real cheap from one of the seniors who said that he couldn't use it because all his classes were on the first floor. There is a Freshmen lecture course here that I don't care very much about. I think the name of the book is "The Civilization in America," and such things are a bore because America has been civilized a long time don't you think so? The school paper is having a contest and giving $55 for a new name for the school paper. I don't know just what I'll do with that money but I guess I'll not let just the name. I'd tell you that I am in charge of the cafeteria service? Maybe body must have told the President about my wonderful business ability. I wear a white cap and coat and am really quite exclusive. I was showing some of the girls how to dance the Deep Well (Black Bottom, that's clever, isn't it?) in the hall the other day, and the Dean of Boys stepped up to me and said he wanted to see me in his office. I guess maybe he wants me to sign a dance contract, but I must get my education first.

Your loving Romeo,
 Frankie.

UNI REGISTRATION METHOD CHANGED

A new system of registration was used at the U. of O. this year. It is a unified system that makes for the easiest and most efficient enrollment possible, and is the same as that used in large universities as the University of Chicago and Wisconsin U. It is so organized that it can expand indefinitely with the growth of the institution as different colleges and new courses are added.

Among the former students of the U. of O. who were pledged to the various sororities and fraternities of Nebraska this week are the following: Louis Jones, Alpha Omicron Pi, Katherine Redman, Alpha Xi Delta, Hugo Carroll, Alpha, Milton Repnack, Alpha Theta Chi, and Gale Davis, Delta Upsilon.

GREEKS

PI OMEGA PI

New students entering school this year have been rushed intensively by the sororities and fraternities. The Pi Omega Pi sorority started "rush" week with a "College Caper" party on Monday evening, September 17, at the home of Miss Nellye Thorsen. On Wednesday evening this sorority entertained at a progressive dinner at the homes of Mrs. Cecil Steele, Mrs. Helen Bondesson Egbert, and Miss Evelyn Hanson. The Pi O sponsor, Mrs. Baumelster, entertained the actives and rushers at a "Lavender" bridge at her home on Thursday evening. The sorority's final party was a formal dinner at the new Conant Hotel on Saturday evening.

SIGMA CHI OMICRON

A "Circus" bridge given at the home of Miss Helen Marks on Tuesday afternoon, September 18, began the week for the Sigma Chi Omicron sorority. The alumnae association of this sorority entertained at a "Land-of-Nod" party for the rushers on Thursday evening, and the formal dinner given at the Fontenelle hotel on Saturday completed the Sig Chi "rush" parties.

PHI DELTA PSI

The first party for the Phi Delta Psi sorority rushers was a "Creole Tea" given at the home of Miss Barbara Dallas on Tuesday afternoon. On Thursday evening this sorority entertained at a "Kewpie" bridge at the home of Miss Luree Combs, and their formal dinner at the Athletic Club on Saturday evening completed their rush parties.

GAMMA SIGMA OMICRON

On Tuesday evening, September 18, the Gamma Sigma Omicron entertained for their rushers at an "Oriental" bridge. Other parties for this sorority were a theater party at the Orpheum on Thursday evening and a "Fireside" party at Camp Brewster on Saturday evening.

On Wednesday evening this fraternity entertained at a theater party at the Orpheum and on Saturday evening at a smoker, at the home of Fred Nelson.

THETA PHI DELTA

The Theta Phi Delta's first rush party was a stag party at the home of Nelson Wodson on Tuesday evening. On Thursday evening this fraternity entertained at a theater party at the Brandies. A smoker at the Elks Club on Saturday evening completed their parties.

ALPHA SIGMA KAPPA

The Alpha Sigma Kappa fraternity entertained their rushers at a "mixer" at the home of Oliver Johnson on Tuesday evening, and on Thursday evening at a mixer party at the Brandies. A smoker at the Old-Fellows completed the rush parties.

DR. SCHWARTZ IMPROVING

Dr. Julius F. Schwartz, Executive Secretary of the university, who has been seriously ill at his home, is improving so his doctor states. He sleeps well nights and about three hours during the day. He is to go around the house. Dr. Schwartz took his first auto ride since he has been ill last Thursday afternoon. The faculty and "Y" are anxious to see Dr. Schwartz. He is expected to return to his duties in about ten days.

Make Improvements On U. of O. Campus

"Every effort is being made to beautify the campus, improve the buildings, and make for more efficient management," said Dr. E. W. Emery in speaking of the outlook for the year.

The officers of the Dean of the university, the Registrar, her assistant, and the Bursar have been repaired, and the Bookstore has been enlarged to twice its original size. An account of the new cafeteria will be found in another column.

All athletic equipment has been removed from Jacobs Hall at 24th and Pratt Streets to Science Hall on Ames Avenue. Here the furnace has been repaired, and new lockers and other athletic equipment installed.

The young women's athletic headquarters have also been repaired. There will be showers and new furnishings in the girls locker rooms.

Hold Tryouts For Uni Vested Choir

Tryouts are being held daily for the U. of O. Vested Choir to be composed of twenty-two women and eighteen men. Membership in the choir will be on a strictly competitive basis, and anyone interested who has not already seen Professor Logan in regard to a tryout should do so at once. It is the plan of the new music head to direct the choir in sacred, secular, and combined sacred and secular programs throughout the year. "It is a rare opportunity for those who like to sing," says Mr. Logan.

He will also give individual students vocal lessons, or they may take instruction on the piano, organ, violin, or any orchestral instrument for credit on a liberal arts course. No private work taken outside the University will be accepted as credit toward a degree from this institution, Professor Logan stated.

Reception For New President To Be Held

There will be a reception given in honor of President and Mrs. E. W. Emery Thursday night, September 21. The affair will be held in the Conservatory, third floor of Joslyn Hall.

Those present will include, besides the guests of honor, members of the faculty of all the colleges and members of the Board of Trustees of the University of Omaha with their husbands and wives. Following the reception new members of the faculty will be presented, and Dr. Emery will give a short talk. Light refreshments will be served.

U. OF O. SOPH TO SING AT WORLD THEATRE

Miss Gladys Mann, Sophomore at U. of O., will appear in the Singers' Popularity contest being held at the World Theatre during October. Miss Mann was one of the sixteen vocalists recently selected from a group of one hundred singers who sang there. The judges were Mrs. Arlo D. Dunn, George Wahl, and Miss Juliet McCune.

Miss Mann is enrolled in the School of Music at the local university, and deserves the support of every loyal student and faculty member. She will appear the week of October 5, which is the third week of the contest. The sixteen contestants will sing in groups of four within a period of four weeks. In that time the public votes for the singer which is best.

This U. of O. singer was heard to say recently, "I'm strong for the U. of O." She is, too; so all other boosters for the Uni are urged to hear Miss Mann sing "It Bacio" and "When Irish Eyes are Smiling," when she sings these numbers in the Singers' Popularity Contest at the World Theatre in about ten days.

OMAHA HAS CHAPTER IN NATIONAL W. A. A.

The University of Omaha has an active chapter in the National Woman's Athletic Association. Sports including basketball, track, and swimming are sponsored by this organization throughout the year. President Corinne Jensen is planning to call a meeting in the near future. Watch announcements on the bulletin board and every girl interested in athletic games up.

"Y" NOTES

Great plans have been laid for "Y" activities this year. Up to this time a number of these plans have been carried through.

All during registration week the Y was active in meeting all new students on the campus, and assisting them in every way possible. The Y. W. C. A. working together established Y headquarters where one or two Y workers were always present to help new students.

The Y's through the courtesy of Miss Barnes, have been keeping on file a list of places for room and board, part time jobs, and work for room and board. This file has enabled the Y to locate several students in rooms during registration week, and will be kept up to date throughout the year.

"Y" Mixer Held

The first school entertainment which was presented last Friday as the Y. M. Y. W. Reception was entirely sponsored by the Y's and its program was under their supervision.

This year, as in previous years, the Y is boosting student conventions. The Y has decided to discontinue sponsoring the sale of Freshman Green Caps and Arm Bands.

The Y, because of its far-reaching work, urges all students to attend its meetings and participate in its business. In this way the Y can keep in close contact with the students of the University.

Further plans of the Y will be announced in the Gateway and in assembly and posted on the Bulletin Boards.

Enrollment Larger Than Expected At College of Law

With a first year class of twenty-six, and a total enrollment of about a hundred, the University of Omaha Night Law College began its regular sessions Monday, September 17.

Preceding regular classes, there were week lecture courses by Judge W. G. Hastings on "The Theory of the Law" and by Dr. Harrison Wigton on "Mental and Nervous Diseases." Countered in Trials," for all students in the college. Special credit, towards a law degree, was given for attendance at these lectures.

The faculty of the Law College has some new members this year, including Frank L. Weaver for Legal Psychology, Judge Bryce Crawford for "Sales," Judge Irvin Stalmaster for "Constitutional Law," John L. Barton for "Nebraska Courts and Practice," and Leonard A. Hammes for "Conflict of Laws." Judge Charles Leslie will assist Judge A. C. Troup with Moot Court this winter which will begin some time in November.

The College of Law was given a splendid write-up in the September number of "Omaha's Own Magazine," in which the history and methods of the college were given, and which article was accompanied by the pictures of all instructors.

This college is one of the strongest of the university, and it is hoped that the law students will feel a closer bond between the other departments of U. of O. than it has before.

Splendid Courses Added at U. of O.

Some slight readjustments have been made this year in the courses offered in the Liberal Arts college. In order to take care of the engineers, the Math courses have been split. One section for the engineers and another for the regular math students. College algebra is given the first semester to prepare a base for analytical geometry which will follow it the second semester. Solid geometry is now changed to the first semester to accommodate the engineers.

A course in college math for those having only one year of high school math is given at 8 o'clock and 11:40, while another course for those having two or three years of high school math is offered at 9 o'clock and 10:40.

Besides these changes some new courses have been added. A course in World Literature is now offered in the English department which embraces the study of literature from the early Greeks and Romans, through the great invasions and immigrations into Germany, France, England and others, and finally up to the present day. A course in logic has been added to the Philosophy department.

An advanced expression class has been organized under the direction of Dean James. This deals with interpretation, the practicing of the theory of expression, and the delivering of orations, readings and speeches. The public speaking course formerly taught by Dean James is now taught by Prof. Gullfoil. Three new courses in psychology have been added: Experimental Psychology, Genetic Psychology and Clinical Psychology. These are taught by Lloyd Bradfield. A new and very interesting class in Personal Hygiene has been organized under Mrs. Fritz Baumelster, this year, and should prove beneficial. Two new history courses have also been added; one of Contemporary American History given by Professor Kuhn and the other, History of the American Constitution, presented by Lloyd Bradfield.

Besides these courses in regular day school, many new classes have been added to the afternoon, evening, and Saturday extension courses. At 4:15, on Monday, Professor Hammer of the department of education will present a course in advanced Principles of Education.

At 4:15, on Tuesday, Mr. Almy of the Omaha Art Institute will lecture on the Development of Architecture.

Three new courses will be offered in the evening classes. The new class in Repertoire in Church Music and Conducting will prove very interesting to those interested in this kind of work. At 7:30 on Monday evening a class in Girl Leadership has been organized under Miss Gladys Shamp, local Camp Fire executive. This class should help the university in a great way as trained leaders are always needed to take charge of the affairs of an institution. On Tuesday at 7 o'clock, a class in Interior Decorating will be instructed by Mr. John McGill, an expert decorator. This will open the way for those who wish to learn a trade outside of working hours.

"Y-W" NOTES

More than fifty girls attended the first meeting of the University Y. W. C. A. in the Conservatory, Tuesday, September 18. Evelyn McDonald, new Drum Major of the band, led the singing, assisted at the piano by Mrs. Tuneburg.

Linda Bradway, the president, said that every girl of the University is considered a member of the Y. W. "Come and be benefited by their hospitality," she added.

Fresh Welcomed

Mrs. Stevens, the new Dean of Women, gave a cordial welcome to the Freshmen and new women of the University of Omaha.

The "Y" will have four types of meetings a month; one inspirational meeting; one educational meeting—possibly style shows and talks; one social meeting—including student and outside talent; and one discussion meeting—considering school problems and launching into economic and social problems in the cities.

The girls all joined in singing the "U. of O." song at the close of the meeting.

The University of Omaha Y. W. C. A. Cabinet met at the downtown Y. W. C. A. building Sunday, September 9, to make plans for the school year. They outlined a program for the "Y" Mixer which was so fine that the men accepted the suggestions to the most minute detail. Cleo McGuire was elected to replace Burrline Jones who resigned as treasurer of the organization.

The cabinets of the Y. W. and Y. M. C. A.'s met with their sponsors, Dr. Vartanian and Miss Ward, Thursday evening, September 13. Donald Butler, Y. M. President, presided. Dr. Vartanian opened the meeting with prayer.

Plans were made for the "Y" Mixer, committees appointed, type of program decided upon, and refreshments and decorations planned.

MRS. JARMIN READS

"The Finger of God," a one-act play, was read by Mrs. Jean Jarmin in assembly, Monday. The play concerns a business man who planned to embezzle the funds of his firm, but was saved by the trust of one of his stenographers. Mrs. Jarmin also gave two shorter readings. She is a graduate of the Cumneck School of Oratory in Chicago.

Pep Meeting Held, Athletics Is Issue

Rousing pep addresses were delivered by Warren Howard, chairman of the athletic board, and A. J. Dunlap, secretary of the board, at assembly Friday. The football team of forty men marched into the Gym in a body.

"The Athletic board started work about sixty days ago without President, coaches, team, equipment, or schedule," said Mr. Howard. "We have employed the finest coaches in Nebraska excepting the State University."

This school is known by its athletics. The University has reached a fork in the road. We must make our own choice and make it now," Mr. Howard continued. "You have to organize yourselves into four hundred members of a booster's club and attend every game."

Mr. Dunlap quoted Dr. Emery, whom he characterizes, as a "Humbinger," as stating, "I consider athletics as the heart of the University." He outlined plans for a football ticket sale, and suggested a new name with teeth in it," Mr. Dunlap explained.

Dr. Emery requested that every student attend assembly regularly.

ONLY TEN FRESHMEN PASS ENTRANCE TEST

Ten Freshmen are excused from first year English Composition this September. When all of the elimination examination papers were graded, Professor Gullfoil, who gives the test each year, announced that only ten made the necessary 86 or above.

Those who are excused from the Freshman work may either take regular Sophomore Rhetoric or no Rhetoric whatever this year, planning to take six hours of composition later in their college course.

Football Men Have First Scrimmage

In one of the first scrimmages of the year the U. of O. lost to South high, 3-0, by a fluke drop-kick. The playing was hard and intensive on both sides, with a little roughness thrown in to liven things up.

Huff and Matthews, with Bolen, starred for Omaha, while Chance of South was the stellar feature of the opposing team. There were many substitutions, and everyone got a chance to get in. Athletic Board Meets And Plans Ticket Sale; Schedule O. K.

The University of Omaha Athletic Board met for luncheon Tuesday afternoon at the Adsett Restaurant for the purpose of making plans for the ensuing year. The 1928 football schedule was approved, contracts were signed, and Coach "Ernie" Hubka was elected a member of the board. President Emery was an honor guest at the luncheon.

Facts were laid before the members by Hubka and A. J. Dunlap, faculty representative, and prospects for a winning team were discussed. Plans were made for launching the sale of season tickets to the five home games. Tickets will be priced at four dollars.

"With such a team of forty men, with all the weight necessary, speed unlimited, and football experience, it will not be hard to sell the tickets to citizens of Omaha," commented Dunlap.

It was decided to hold an election at the university under the guidance of the Student Council to fill the vacancy left on the Athletic Board by Harry Gamble, who is now living in California. A new name will also be chosen for the team to replace the old "Cardinals."

Motion pictures were passed that yell leaders be selected after tryouts have been held and that the U. of O. band play at every game this season.

Members of the Athletic Board present were: Warren Howard, Chairman; Hugh A. Myers, A. C. Thomas, A. J. Dunlap, Ernest Hubka, and Leah Eisenberger, student representative.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL OUTLOOK BRIGHT

Coach "Mae" Peterson is planning to begin practice of the girls' basketball team very soon. The U. of O. team for the splendid girls' basketball season, has a fine outlook for the winter. Although the Green team had poor start forwards, are now better in the university, two new players, Katherine Cook and Helena Peterson, have already been found.

Green team, which won last year's championship, is working engineering and science.

Sportitorial

Say, folks! People are interested in the football team as much as you and I are and some of them a whole lot more than the most of us. Omaha University is as much a part of the town as the town is a part of the school; so get out and tell your friends about those coaches that we have. Let them know about the band that is in the process of construction; tell them about the new school spirit that has welled up in the student body this year; in fact, tell them everything about this good, old school. Be a newspaper in yourself, and advertise the school like it should be advertised—wholeheartedly, and not kicked in the back and talked against as some of the students have done in the past when they were kicked out of school or failed in their studies through no fault but their own.

That day is past, and the University has started on a new era. Athletics with a capital A is its advertising medium. Why can't we expect great things from the student body? They have never given themselves body and soul to the school, but only in a half way attitude as though they were doing a favor for someone. Now get that idea out of your head, and buckle down to work with the team. Let them know that you are behind them; talk to them about football; come up to practise, and watch that squad of huskies work, and then go home feeling ashamed because you can do so little when they are doing so much.

As it was said before, advertise! Let the old football fans—sportsmen, know about the good games to come; get out on that ticket drive, and sell, sell, sell. Do not be a petty salesman with a scared look in your eyes, but a high powered salesman convinced in the product that he is selling, namely University of Omaha stock, that it is the best and that it deserves a place with the other commodities of its type in Omaha. Get some intestinal fortitude; get a back bone, get something besides thoughts of a good time, a fast date or a booze party into that thing on the top of your spine that is at least supposed to hold a little common sense.

We have a President that is eating, sleeping and talking football with the team, and we are all proud of him; if some of you fellows could at least bite off a little bit of a piece of football, it would either kill you or else make you dreadfully sick; so if you can't get out there with the team on the field through sickness, work, or something—bite off a piece of cheering, chew it good, and then let the boys have it in big husky installments at all the games.

Let me tell you something, it takes something that men, real men, are made out of to go out on a football field and play the game as it should be played. When a fellow can have a leg broken, a foot maimed, or possibly be killed, that's when it takes that "never say die" spirit that lifts men up to the heights of glory when they will do things that are really superhuman. It's just like a battle field out there and the rooters in the stands are seeing the battle first hand instead of in the news reels or in the movies. Maybe you have a friend out there doing his best. Start those old lungs going and roar till you're hoarse, not only for your own team, but for that opposing team of fighters who are out to bring home the laurels for their home town or college, as well.

When it comes time for a game and you feel mean and don't want to go, get out your warmest sweater, that good-looking dress or suit, and bring it to the stadium. Nobody will notice it as they will all be too excited to see what Billy Brown or Edgie Grey is wearing at this time of the season. If that boy friend wants to drag you off to a good show, tell him it will last, and take him by the hand, and lead him out to the field and through the arena gates of the stadium. And boys, you can do the same with the girls, and if they really tell them that you are off of them for the rest of the day or till

Lineup For First Game Is Chosen

"History repeats itself," so says somebody; anyway, what do we care, because the team is going to Norfolk to play their first football game of the season this Friday, that's something vital.

After all the striving and working that the fellows and coaches have done, it is no wonder that they are anxious to know of the outcome of it. Some time ago, Coach Hubka made the statement that the first game of the season would be a test of power against power, due to the fact that neither one of the teams had had anytime to work up its speed so early in the season. We believe this with him, judging from the hefty lineup that he is contemplating on taking along. From one man to the next, it is the heaviest team that has ever donned the moleskins for the U. of O. for a number of years. He has picked some of the likely men who will probably start the game.

Center—Barber, Utterback, Streitweiser.
Right guard—Schoenfelt, Hewlett.
Right tackle—Threadgill, Fraley.
Right end—Quisenberry, Roberts, Arthur.
Quarterback—Huff.
Fullback—Bolen, Boehler.

the next time anyway. Tell them something forceful, assert yourself, start being the man or the woman of the house early in life, and you may be it the rest of the time, if something radical doesn't happen.

Now, let's get the old car working, round up the gang, and bring all the relations along to the field and settle yourself up in the stands for a treat that can't be beat, no matter what price you pay for your seat. All set? Let's go!

UNI TO HAVE BAND; WENDLAND DIRECTS

"We want to have just as peppy a band as possible," said Professor Logan, Dean of the School of Music, when interviewed in the hall last Friday noon on the progress of the band. Professor Logan is doing his utmost to urge people to come out for this organization.

Miss Evelyn McDonald has the position of drum major this year. She graduated from Technical High School in June 1928, where she has been assistant instructor in music for the past two years. In 1927, she represented her school in the National symphonic band. Henry Wendland has been chosen as band director.

Professor Logan stated that the band would play at all the home games, but as yet it has received no instructions about outside games.

Oh, Where Is My Hat Tonight? Ernie Wonders

The first thing Hub did in Omaha was lose his hat! Now don't contradict a good reporter who KNOWS.

Hub has to eat just the same as any other U. of O. booster, tho' some of us find little time. "Coach" found a good eating "joint", went in to satisfy his hunger, but hung up his hat first. . . .

Now he's lost his hat! After one of the best meals of his life—You know Omaha food—"Ernie" sauntered out, tipped his hat—I mean—almost did—to a friend, but it wasn't there—I mean the hat wasn't. Frantic searching could not find the missing instrument. Some stranger, certainly no Omahian, had ruthlessly "swiped" said hat. And the Hub of the U. of O. team spent $12.50 that very afternoon for a new one.

Hub watches that hat now!

Speed, Weight and Experience Form Nucleus of Team

Here it is, folks—the most remarkable list of names that ever set foot on a football field together. Some are long ones belonging to little men, and others are skinny ones belonging to big heavy set giants. Heading the list are five lettermen from last year's team who have always played their best.

Lawrence "Johnny" Barber heads the list as Hubka's best bet for the center rush position, while following right close on his heels is Duane "Kid" Hutchinson, who is going to give the opposing ends something to worry about. Lorane Schoenfelt the other member of last year's line bids fair to be a hard number to crack as he is tough as nails and raring to go. In the backfield we have with us the two old satellites that shown so strongly last year, Matthews and Boehler.

With us from last year's squad we have the men that were unable to letter, but nevertheless kept right out there helping the team to keep in shape. The first of them is Ralph Kahn, a man who didn't get out in time to start the season and then when he did was ineligible to play. Second to him is Tommy Utterback, last year's reserve center, who will be Barber's understudy this season. Kenneth "Lovin'" Jensen has also checked out a suit and is out for some real work. Nussbaum and Johansen, two new men on the squad, but upper classmen, are having their first taste of Varsity football.

The new men come from various parts, the best looking one coming from Logan Iowa, in the personage of Bennie Huff, who was the Iowa all state High School Quarter. Along with him we have two other backfield men from York high school, Jarvis Bolen and George Campbell.

From Central we have a lot of good prospects, Edwards their last year's quarter, William Arthur, a reserve at the court house school. Holister, Johnson, and Dahlheimer are three fellows who have still to play in their first big game. Melcher, also from Central has a good chance for an end berth.

South has also swelled the ranks of the fighting squad with the McDermott brothers, Ken and Bill, who are both backfield men, an end and a center were also sent over in Montgomery and Streitweiser who lend lots of weight to the line.

From North we have Hargrove, Woods, and Quisenberry who are giving the line men competition at guard and end.

The boys from Tech are also out with Threadgill, Hewlett and another McDermott there with their fighting clothes on.

Henson, the suburban school, was able to only have one man represented in Fay who is a promising end. California, the state of opportunities, sent us Gamble to try his luck here, and the pre-season dope on him has it that he is quite the speedster with a lot of power in his kicking leg. From Kearney High School comes Gabriel George, a little man but mighty, who will help to plug the left half of the line. Ashburn, another one of South's players, is out in suit and with his leg is counted on to make records.

They are: Fraley, Wilson, Helmstader, Larson, Roberts, Hameche, McGorman, Markovitz, and Sharp. The city across the river sent one applicant, Shannahan, who played the quarter post last year.

Forty Men Out for University of Omaha Team. Material Is Best Ever.

THE NEW COACHES ARE ON THE JOB

Will wonders never cease? That is what we are all ready to ask. For the first time in the history of the school, a squad of forty, good, strapping, football men have been on hand to start out the season! This has been brought about through the activities of Mr. Dunlap, Mr. Warren Howard, chairman of the athletic board, the board of trustees, and Dr. Emery.

To start with, they have two capable coaches who are rated as one of the best coaching staffs in Nebraska today. Hubka has played with Nebraska, and while there was one of the fastest and shiftest backs of his day. Since leaving the University he has coached the college team at York, and was coaching the high school team up to the time that he came to the U. of O. He is the first all-time coach that Omaha has ever had; so we must stand back of him and give him all of our support.

Joe Weir, the other half of this splendid coaching staff, is great, too. He has written his name in the dust of the gridiron. Weir played with the University of Nebraska's winning combinations, and was one of their big mainstays. He was somewhat handicapped for weight during his athletic career, but made up for it in grit and determination. He is not a full-time coach, but devotes as much time as he can spare from his work. He comes out every night at 4:00 and stays late till the practice is done and all the fellows have checked in, and their cuts, hurts and wounds are all taken care of or until all of the kinks have been pounded out of their bruised and battered muscles.

The fellows all agree that the coaches are two bricks, giving everyone a chance to show what stuff each one of the squad of forty has in him. Both of the football mentors are ready for business when they come out on the field. They have bought themselves some equipment, and are themselves able to demonstrate each little principle and fundamental of football to the squad, and to impart to the fellows the host of football knowledge they learned in their football days.

The second big factor in the football crusade was to get a place to play. This the athletic board did. They obtained the football stadium at Twenty-fourth and Ames and equipped the basement of the old Saratoga school with locker rooms, showers and a checking room so as to speed up practice, and enable the fellows to get out on the field in suit an hour before they did last year. Through this checking system all danger of stolen articles and money have been done away with, as all of this is now kept under lock and key behind barred windows.

Squad of Forty
The third biggest factor in the squad of forty fellows who have been enlisted in the army of football warriors. Men from different high schools and colleges with two to four years' football experience have been drafted and are all working hard to make a position on the team this year.

The fourth reason for high hopes for a good year at Omaha has to do with a band. Mr. Logan, head of the School of Music at Omaha, got together with Mr. Dunlap, and devised a plan to get a good, peppy band started. Right now tryouts for this band are being held, and all those who can toot, blow or pound are asked to faithfully come out and show everyone the spirit behind your makeup in giving your time and energy to build up the name of the school.

The fifth factor in the list of achievements of the board is the gathering together of one of the hardest schedules that an Omaha team has ever played. In this schedule we take on no little teams but some of the best in Iowa, Missouri and Nebraska. Most all of the teams that we play this year have from ten to twenty letter-men back, while we only have the small sum of five. Peru Normal, for instance, comes on the field with twenty last year letter-men to form a team, and considering the fact that they were last year's state champions, this game bids fair to be a fast one.

Another thing that will have a lot to do with the making of a better team is the new equipment that the board has been able to purchase. Last year the fellows had to play without stockings of any kind to protect their shins, but this year things are going to be different as an order has been put in for some of these needed articles. Coach Hubka is bringing to Omaha this season some of the sweaters of the type that Nebraska uses; these, together with the new ones of last year will make the team look like a regular University team, and not as they looked in recent years—like a scrub team of separate players.

If the athletic board composed of some very prominent people can see fit to devote their time to building up such a fine team, let's see if the whole student body to a man or to a woman, can get behind the team, and be out to every game and root loyally for the team as they win or they lose on our home field or the foe's.
